Double Patenting

Applicant's Terminal Disclaimer filed 23 April 2004 has overcome the Double patenting rejection of the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Chisti et al. (PCT Publication WO 98/58596 cited by applicant).

Chisti et al. disclose a computer implemented method, system, computer program on a tangible medium and computer system of separating a tooth from an adjacent structure. The method comprises defining a cutting surface using cubic B-spline curves and applying the cutting surface between the tooth and the structure to separate the tooth from the structure in a single cut (see page 18, lines 12-21, page 19, lines 3-15). Regarding claim 16, see page 18, lines 22-29.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 23 April 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to applicant's arguments that Chisti et al. discloses the cut being performed as a sequence of erasures rather than as a single cut, it is noted that this sequence of erasures constitutes a single cut. As set forth in Chisti et al. on page 19, lines 3 and 4, “A cut is comprised of multiple eraser boxes arranged next to each other...” Looking to the specification to determine what applicant means by a cut, we find the identical recitation on page 10, lines 26 and 27 of the instant application: “A cut is comprised of multiple eraser boxes arranged next to each other...” Thus Chisti et al. clearly anticipates the claimed method.

Regarding applicant’s arguments, repeating almost verbatim, dependent claims 2-20 and the conclusion that Chisti et al. does not disclose these limitation, it is to be noted that Rule 37 CFR 1.11(b) requires that applicant MUST distinctly and specifically point out errors in the examiner’s action. Arguments or conclusions of attorney cannot take the place of evidence. In re Cole, 51 CCPA 919, 326 F.2d 769, 140 USPQ 230 (1964); In re Schultze, 52 CCPA 1422, 346 F.2d 600, 145 USPQ 716 (1965); Meitzer v. Mindick, 549 F.2d 775, 193 USPQ 17 (CCPA 1977).

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
